Student Life — More Than Just Books

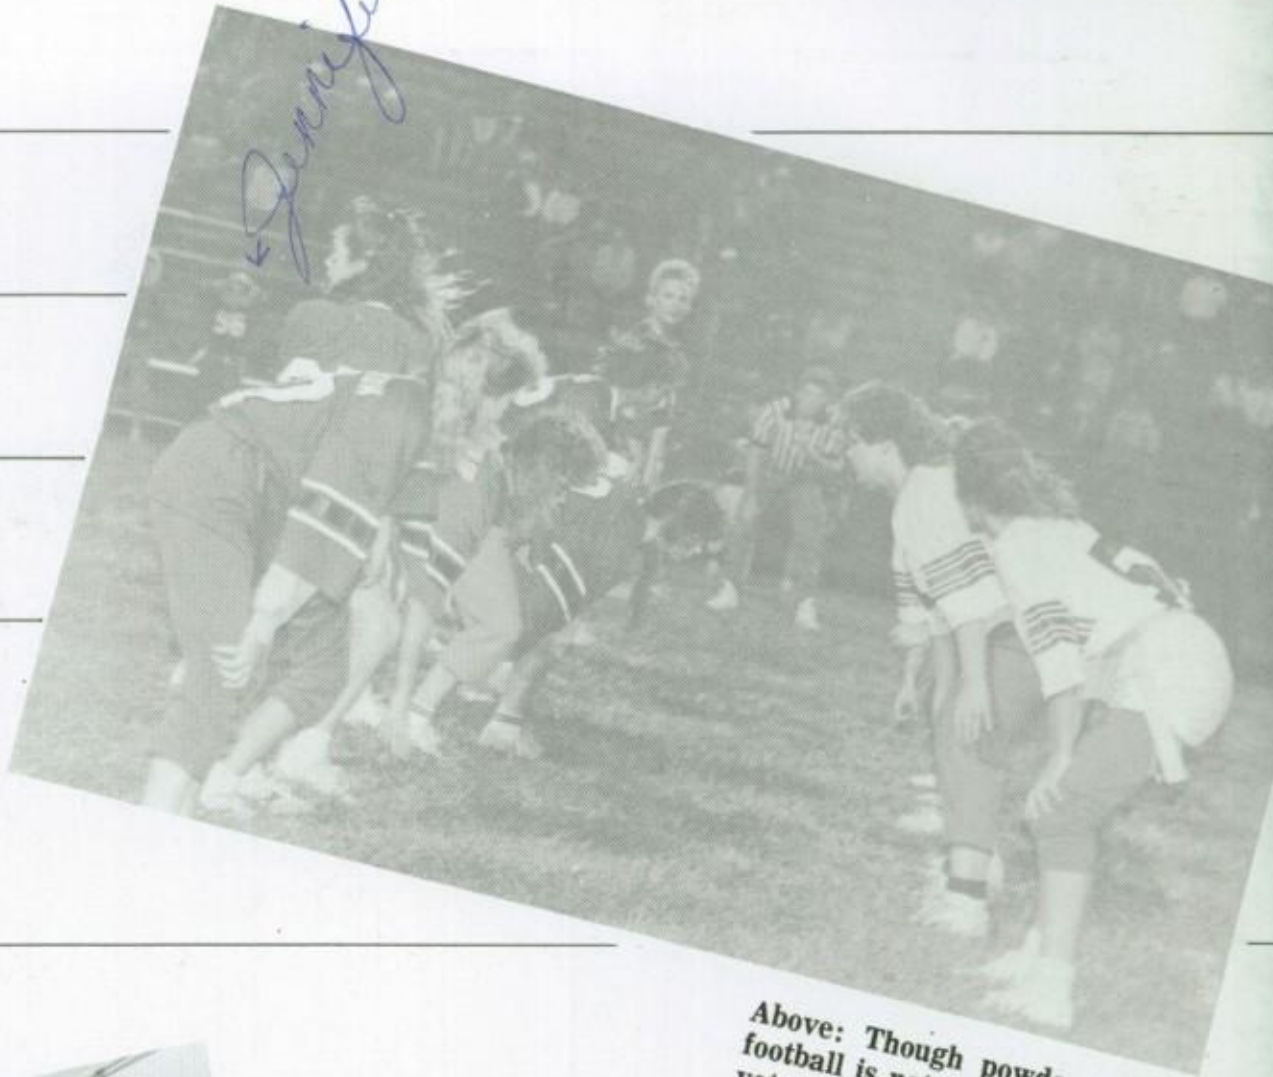

Angie Wright

School life is often considered by many students, boring. You get up, get dressed, go to school, come home, do homework (maybe), go to bed, and then get up and start all over again. Five days a week, nine months a year.

But student life is more than just classes and homework. It's publications, forensics contests, musical programs, prom and homecoming. It's clubs, such as FHA, FFA, NHS, Letterman's and Spanish. It's also extra-curricular activities like Stuco, plays and horse shows. It's the inter-related going to KU. It's the Culture Club going to Snow Creek. It's the seniors traveling to Branson for their senior trip.

These clubs, events, contests and programs tend to bring out the unique characteristics of each student.

Even though the majority of school time is taken up with academics the students manage to find the time to relieve the tension through various other activities. Pep assemblies, pizza party, lip sync, power puff football and all-school quiz bowls.

Above: Though powder puff football is not a varsity sport yet, several high school girls are giving it their all for the ol' green and white.

Above: Even with the hectic pace of everyday school life we all must take time out, just like Spanish Club, to enjoy ourselves.

Above: Practice! Practice! Practice! Practice is just as important in extracurricular activities as in sports.

Lettermen/Culture Club

Lettermen's Club is an organization designed for those athletes who have excelled in various sports throughout their high school career. Both boys and girls are eligible for admittance into the club once they have lettered. However, they must stay in that sport throughout high school.

A video party, complete with pizza and coke, was the highlight of the year. Leading the club were: President — Kim McCorkell, vice president — Chad Allen, secretary-treasurer — Lisa Baker and Stuco representative — Todd Golladay.

Prairie View's Culture Club was organized four years ago to give students an opportunity to enjoy recreational activities that they may have been unable to attend otherwise.

This year's first trip was on Oct. 18 to the American Heartland Theatre to view the musical "Pump Boys and Dinettes." After the show, the group went to Ponak's, a Mexican restaurant, for dinner.

On Jan. 6, 39 students loaded up to hit the slopes at the Snow Creek Ski Area in Weston, MO. After an hour-long ski class, in which students were taught the basic moves, the group was prepared to brave the slopes.

The last trip of the season was on April 15. The group traveled to Kemper Arena to see the Ice Capades. The show featured a "Salute to Hollywood" which included the Smurfs, ice dancing and stunts, comedy acts, a life-size chess game and a grand finale. After the ice spectacular, the group ate at Wendy's.

Special honors go to David Kline, Todd Golladay, Chad Allen, Lisa Baker, Lori Canada and Jennifer Johnson at the Fall Athletic Banquet.

National Honor Society

Gretta Cline

Prairie View's National Honor Society held its first meeting of the year on October 28. At this meeting, the 1987-88 officers were elected.

They were as follows: President — Larry Reynolds; Vice-President — Christy Long; Secretary — Kathy Kirkpatrick; and Treasurer — Dennis Ross.

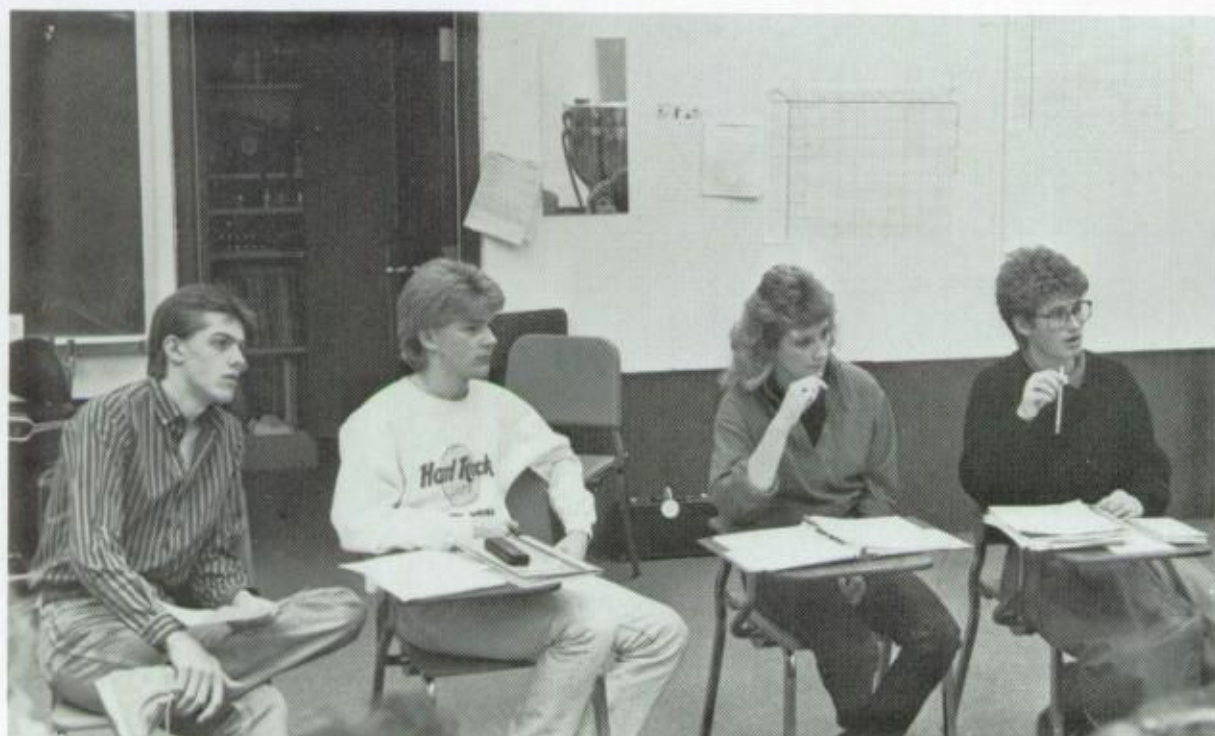

New members of NHS were installed on April 25. They were: Lisa Baker, Shelly Mullani, Stacey Dubois and Mandy Long.

On April 27, 10 NHS members and advisors Dan Stwalley and Alex Golladay went to Jayhawk-Linn High School to install the charter members of its first honor society. The annual NHS-Stuco trip was May 10. The group traveled to Waldo Astoria Theatre in Kansas City and viewed the popular play "Nunsense."

Other members of the National Honor Society include: Mary Moylan, Lisa Marchand, Darren Koberlein, Jim Farris, Heather Wier, Dana Teagarden, Jill Lowe, Jonee Hardesty, Lori Polley, Stephanie Teagarden, Gregg Polley and Matt Teagarden.

Though Student Council does many similar activities year after year, the end result is never the same. Different students, holding offices and representative positions, work together in different ways every year.

We started planning this year after elections last May. Two members, Amy Teagarden and Rochelle Kester, went to the Kansas StuCo conference at Emporia. Advisor Alex Golladay, Dennis Ross, Dana Teagarden, Darren Koberlein, and Lisa Wainscott journeyed by plane and by car to Buffalo, New York and took part in the national conference. All returned home overflowing with enthusiasm and new ideas.

Meeting several times over the summer, StuCo planned a teachers' welcome back breakfast, the first-day assembly, the jam dance and Homecoming. We also worked on the mundane but necessary things like posting, the moving sign and the pop machine.

Throughout the year we worked on activities such as a Straight Talk assembly about sex, a Powder Puff football game, the in-school Christman Party and canned food drive, Spirit Courtwarming, a Lip Sync, a computer Valentine match-up, and brought speaker Jim Post in to talk about the terrible realities of prison.

After being asked by the Board of Education to make a recommendation on the dress code, StuCo conducted a student opinion survey. Though only requested to make a recommendation on hair, StuCo felt student response demanded we include the issues of mustaches, sweats and shorts. No decision has been made by the board at this point but next year's officers have promised to follow through on the project.

All in all this was a good year and a learning experience for old and new members alike.

A year of change is a good way to describe the 1987-88 publications class. The newspaper class began by deciding they wanted more than just a district newsletter with a bit of news. So they began by increasing the paper to eight pages, with pages for the Jr. High, features and editorials. Seventeen juniors and seniors worked hard to make The Stampede something everyone could be proud of. The yearbook staff did not sit by either. They increased the annual by 12 pages, sold eight-page autograph booklets, increased the sports' section and added several other "new wrinkles" to the book. Those members who worked on this year's staff were: Kathy Kirkpatrick — yearbook editor, Dana Teagarden — newspaper editor, Stacy Ross — photography editor, Malinda Long and Tammy Noel — business managers, Billy Niesz — staff photographer, Tammy Boone, Gretta Cline, Patty Dowty, Angela Elliott, Jannette Elliott, Jennifer Elliott, Tracie Kline, Jennifer Kriley, Jill Lowe — staff, and Dennis Ross — layout editor.

Forensics

To be a Forensics team member you must be outgoing and committed. Setting up a time to practice before and after school takes a special effort. Compromise becomes very important during the Forensics season. All the meets were held on Saturday but that wasn't all bad. The people you meet at tournaments were unique and probably wouldn't have met anywhere else.

People are coming into Forensics to improve their acting and speaking ability. After the first time jitters are gone, they discover they like it and have fun.

Many accomplishments have been attained this year. The goals of breaking finals, getting a I, and making it to State were all reached by PV students. Celeste Capehart was a State Championship Qualifier. She was also named the Outstanding Forensics Student.

Student who were in Forensics and their event are as follows:

Stacey Ross, duet acting; Dennis Ross, duet acting; Celeste Capehart, solo acting; Stacey McGee, informative speaking; Paula Rowe, extemporaneous speaking; Angie Catron, poetry interpretation; Janet Carter, extemporaneous speaking; Nannie Kline, prose interpretation; Tara Stainbrook, informative speaking; Karre Burchett, original oration; Jodie Long, solo acting; Tracie Kline, poetry interpretation, and Mrs. Pam Baugh, coach.

Band-Stage Band

GRETTA CLINE

The PV band department had a busy and rewarding year. Both timeless traditions and new experiences enhanced the band member's playing ability by supplying opportunities to display and exercise their talents.

The marching band had an especially successful season. They were awarded a 1st division trophy at the Pittsburg State University Band Day Parade. According to director Nat Wisdom, this was the first time PV band had received such a high honor in that event. The band also marched in the American Royal Parade and the La Cygne Fiesta.

During the football season, the marching band was busy entertaining the crowd with pre-game and half-time performances at every home game. The band went on the road for one football performance: Louisburg High School invited PV to perform with them at one of their games. The band performed jointly and separately. Wisdom thought the performance went exceptionally well. He commented, "The kids did an excellent job representing PV. It was superb."

To raise interest in grade school students, the band toured at the La Cygne, Parker, and Fontana Elementary Schools. Other activities included concerts at the La Cygne Tree Lighting Ceremony and the Christmas and Spring concerts at PV. These concerts allowed the community to enjoy the bands in a setting other than ball games.

Several students received special honors throughout the year. Sophmores Jeff Russell and Jodie Long were chosen for the district band. Stacey McGee, Christy Long, Jodie Long and Kim Bergman were selected for Four State Band sponsored by PSU. Jeff Russell and Christy Long were chosen to participate in the State Music Festival in Andover after receiving I ratings at contest.

Toward the end of the year when most people were ready for summer and all the sun and fun that goes along with it, band members were still hard at work. Kansas City Kansas Community College hosted a band competition on April 12. To prepare for this event, a band clinician was brought in to work with the students. Don Shaffer, the band director at Center High School in KCMO, stayed with the students for two hours. During that time, the students received valuable advice and hints for their performance.

The high school band students for the 1987-88 school year were as follows: FLUTES — Christy Long, Mary Moylan, Karri Pearce and Paula Rowe; CLARINETS — Stacey McGee, Heather Weir, Leanna DeGruson, Amy Boydston, Dustin Stwalley and Shelly Mullani (Drum Major); BASS CLARINETS — Jodie Long, and Kim Bergman; SAXOPHONES — Collette Hardesty and Justin Roberts; TRUMPETS — Keith Beattie, Daryl Davis and Mike Nickell; TROMBONES — Kelly Northern, Eric Stanley and Camri Sample; BARITONE — Ida Kennedy; TUBA — Jeff Russell; PERCUSSION — Christy Thorton, Dean Stwalley and Michelle Meitler.

The Stage Band is a unique part of PV's band department. This group performs as an elite group of some of the most talented musicians of PV. It consists of: SAXOPHONES — Stacey McGee, Kathy Kirkpatrick, Justin Roberts and Steve McCammon; TRUMPETS — Keith Beattie, Daryl Davis, Mike Nickell and Jeff Hampton; TROMBONE — Camri Sample; DRUMS — Jared Warrick; BASS KEYBOARD — Joe Jackson; PIANO — Jennifer Kriley.

They, too, had an active year. They performed at several home basketball games and performed at both the Christmas and Spring concerts. The highlight of their season was their annual Christmas tour. They first entertained the patients and staff of the Osawatimie State Hospital and then traveled to Oak Park Mall in Overland Park.

After a successful year in concert and parade attendance, the band department is anticipating continued success in the 1988-89 school year.

Vocal/Piano

Prairie View's concert and junior varsity choirs had an active year in performances. They performed at the fall, Christmas and spring concerts at PV, at the La Cygne Christian Church, for the Beagle Senior Citizens, at Spirit crowning and at Oak Park Mall during Christmas.

Besides this long list of accomplishments, the group competed in many various contests. Angela Bishop, Celeste Capehart, Michael Bishop, Joe Jackson, Colette Hardesty and Jonee Hardesty traveled to Iola on Jan. 9 to attend District II.

Angela Dunlop received a place in state choir. The concert choir received a I rating at the Kansas City Kansas Community College music contest. Many small ensembles and solos also competed at different levels.

The concert choir was as follows: Bruce Baker, Lisa Baker, Lisa Berglund, Michael Bishop, Celeste Capehart, Lori Cox, Angela Dunlop, Jimmy Farris, Colette Hardesty, Jonee Hardesty, Joe Jackson, Tally Jenkins, Rochelle Kester, Rick Kirkpatrick, Darren Koberlein, Mandy Long, Lisa Marchand, Wendy Marchand, Mary Moylan, Karri Pearce, Tara Stainbrook, Carrie Sunderland, Wendy Sunderland, Amy Teagarden and Audra Thoden.

The JV Choir was as follows: Paul Baird, Donna Bousfield, Mary Carlton, Leanna DeGruson, Marie Dilley, Twanda Fleming, Lori Hays, Lynetta Macklin, Ora Marler, Kim McIntosh, Donald Peters, Johnna Servos, Abbe Smith, Robert Tinsley, Cherie Watson and Vicki Watts.

This year's piano class increased in number to eight enrolled. They were as follows: Gayla Bowman, Dana Clear, Michelle Meitler, Lisa Baker, Tara Stainbrook, Rosetta Surbaugh, Susan Sargent and Amy Teagarden.

These talented musicians performed a recital on Nov. 30, at Display Night on May 16 and at Swan Manor for Christmas. Lisa Baker presented a solo piano recital on May 15 for the community.

Several attended the State Piano Festival in Baldwin. Tara Stainbrook and Lisa Baker received medals at this event. All the students improved their playing ability throughout the year with their many excellent performances.

Prom

Prairie View's Junior-Senior Prom, "Knight of Enchantment in Camelot" truly enchanted prom-goers with its elaborate decorations and awesome D.J. The Junior class worked diligently on Friday to create a medieval aura.

One of the feature attractions was the valet parking offered by some of the parents. A canopied entrance with a shining banner announced the arrival of Camelot to PV. The hallway leading into the gym was transformed to a drawbridge crossing over a moat. Sand candles lightened the journey across the moat giving a romantic effect to the evening. The gymnasium was decorated with castle stone paper and a Roman garden. The garden was the gym's main attraction with a pool and fountain surrounded by benches and flowered trees to complete the garden effect. The ceiling was lowered with metallic streamers that reflected the romance and sparkling beauty of the night.

The dance was a huge success with the famous Q104 D.J., Chuck Nasty spinning the tunes. The "Nastyman" livened up the evening with several exciting contests and the awarding of Q104 t-shirts. Out of the many contests held, Richard Boone won the male dance contest, while Brad Mendenhall and Jill Lowe captured the "twisting" title. All the participants had a great time.

Souvenir memory books were handed out to forever cherish the night and Tim's Shutter Shoppe offered a remembrance photograph. Refreshments were served by sophomores Wes Chambers, Eric Canada, Jerry Cutshaw, Treasa Howard, Laura Brown and Michelle Meitler.

The Junior class did a spectacular job with the entire event. The sponsors, Debbie Likely, Tony Fornelli, Ron Price, Joan Windler, and Walda Baker, would like to thank them for all their hard work and the Juniors greatly appreciate the sponsors support. It was a truly a "Knight of Enchantment in Camelot."

JUST HORSIN'

by Jill Lowe

Fun! Excitement! Competition! These are some of the things High School Rodeo offers. HS Rodeo is a demanding sport too, as Mark Driskell, Kristie Clearwater, Jill Lowe, Angie Camerer, and Nikki Jones will emphatically agree. These determined PV students practice hour upon hour and travel many miles to succeed in their sport. To be a competitor in this sport these five students must be dedicated not only to daily practice, but to keeping up their grades as well. To be eligible to compete in HS Rodeo they must pass five of their seven classes.

Mark, Kristie, Jill, Angie, and Nikki put in many hours on the road hauling to the twenty qualifying rodeos held throughout the state at Concordia, Plainville, Topeka, Dodge City, Kingman, Lakin, McPherson, Medicine Lodge, Scott City, and Burlington. To make it to State Finals, which are held in Topeka, the rodeo athletes must gain points in their events by placing in the top ten at the qualifying rodeos or by competing in at least half of these rodeos.

At State they compete for double the points to determine the top four rodeo competitors in each event who will represent Kansas at the National HS Rodeo Finals in Pueblo, Colorado at the end of July.

The competition level in HS Rodeo is top notch. Each competitor is determined to do his or her best. This determination creates Champions. The State and National HS Rodeo Finals are often as competitive and exciting as the Pro Rodeo Finals.

All the hard work, dedication, and travel time rodeo competitors invest does pay off. Awards such as horse blankets, trophy buckles and trophy saddles are given at the State and National Finals. The chance to compete at Nationals is the experience of a lifetime. Rodeo athletes who do well at the State and National levels are often awarded healthy rodeo scholarships. But regardless of whether you win or lose, the competition and comradery give a great sense of self-satisfaction. The friends one makes and the memorable times they share last a lifetime.

AROUND . . .

Spring, summer, and fall find Stephanie Coones and Brad Heide traveling the American Paint Horse Association circuit, showing their horses every weekend in many different places throughout Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas. The competitors in the APHA are ranked from one to twenty with points accumulated in their twenty best circuit shows to determine who will make it to the APHA World Wide Congress Show held in Albuquerque, New Mexico.

Stephanie and Brad show in halter, western, English, timed event and trail classes to earn as many points as they can towards the APHA All-Around. In order to gain National Championship titles, a showman must earn 16 halter points, 50 western and English points combined, and five timed event or trail points. Throughout the many years Stephanie has been showing, she has won eight of these titles on wight different horses. Brad has won two in the few years he has been showing. In 1986 Stephanie placed 8th in the top twenty in the All-Around, and was the Reserve Champion in English Equitation at the World Show. In 1987 she was awarded second place in Western Pleasure. Brad won Reserve Champion Senior Mare in halter at the APHA World in 1986, and in 1987 placed eighth in the Nation in the All-Around. Along with the thrill of winning such prestigious titles, Stephanie has been awarded three trophy saddles and numerous trophy belt buckles. Brad has won two saddles and many belt buckles as well.

M★A★S★H

Gretta Cline

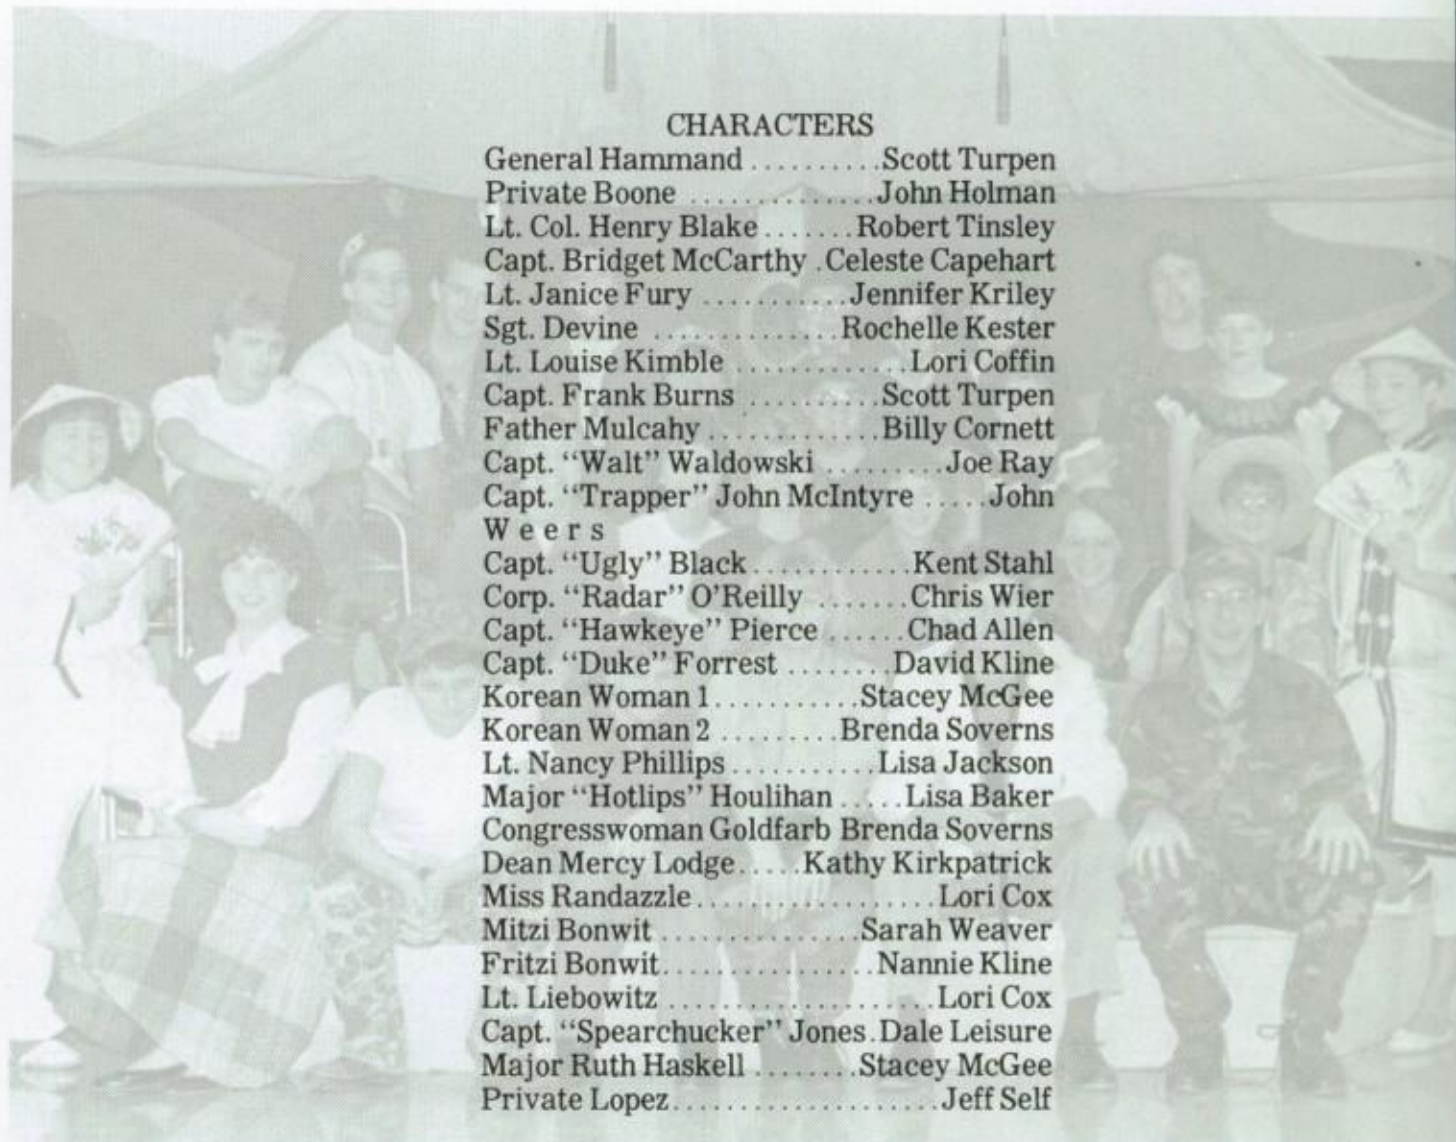

The roar of choppers overhead rocked the PV auditorium on Nov. 11 and 12 during the high school production of M★A★S★H. M★A★S★H, a comedy portraying the antics of the 4077th Mobile Army Surgical Hospital during the Korean War, was directed by Mr. Keith Smith and Mrs. Pam Baugh.

Long before the performance, actors, actresses and stage crew members were hard at work. While actors battled to learn their lines and cues, the stage crew was busy transforming the stage into an army compound.

Once the sets were completed, the actors moved their practices to the stage. Many newcomers to the stage and veteran actors gave the play variety and well cast characters. Despite some problems, the play came together in time for outstanding matinee and evening performances.

The opening scenes showed Lt. Col. Blake arranging to have Capt. "Hawkeye" Pierce and Capt. "Duke" Forrest join the 4077th. These two unpredictable surgeons befriended Ho-Jon, a young Korean boy, and decided to wage a campaign to send him to the U.S. for an education. This common theme that ran throughout the play was spiced with side-splitting scenes involving other M★A★S★H characters.

At one point, Hawkeye was pushed over the edge of sanity and was confronted by a psychiatrist who thought he had been trying to lobster-trap mermaids in a rice paddy. The compound was entertained by the Bonwit Sisters, the worst tapdancing act the U.S.O. ever sent overseas. The proprietor of the painless dental clinic was cured of depressions by the recreation of an old monster movie, complete with a monster. These were just a few of the

Courtwarming

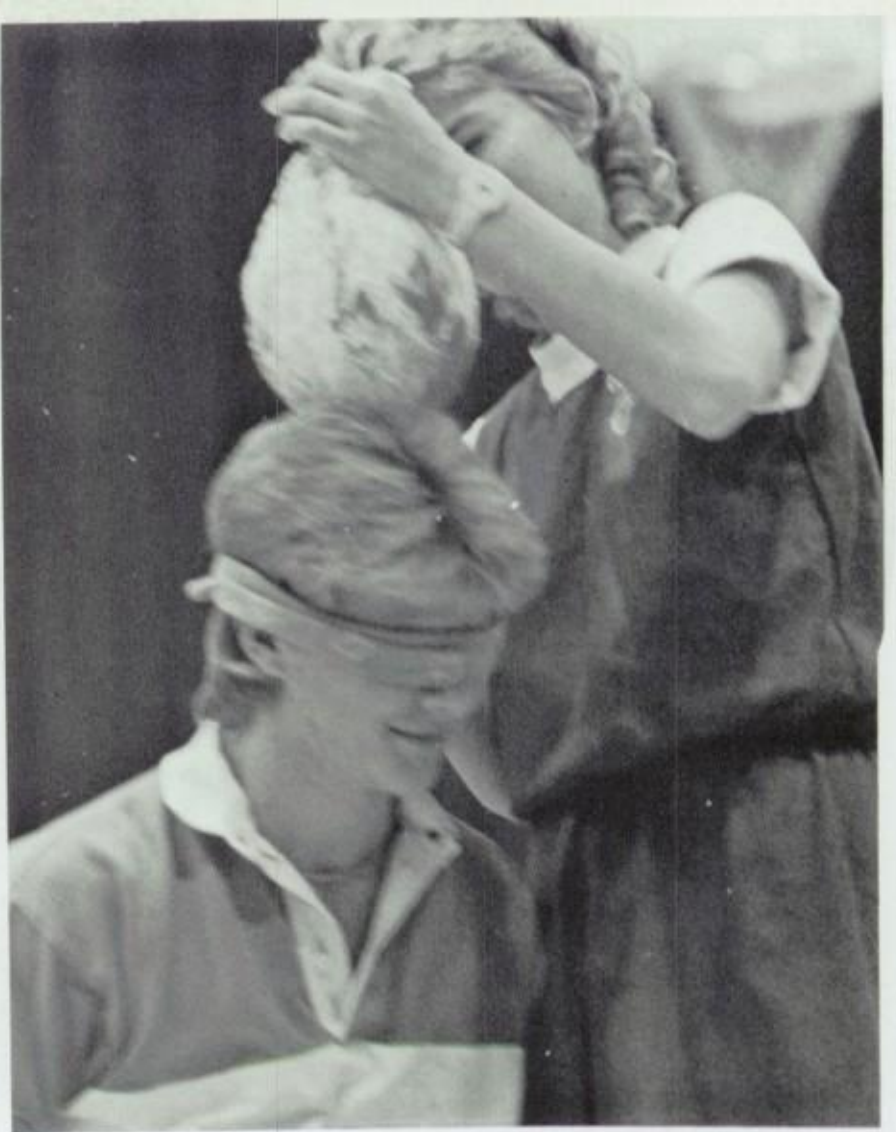

During the week of January 4, creative posters lined the halls of Prairie View, enforcing this year's theme "Time of Your Life." Pajama Day began the week, followed by Dress-up-like-Your-Favorite-Teacher Day (won by Jimmy Farris and Lisa Baker.) Gregg Polley and Mindy Henderson won the Dress-in-Your-Brightest Day on Wednesday and Thursday Jerry Cutshaw and Lisa Marchand won Masquerade Ball Day. On Friday Rodney Benson and Kerry Hampton took the traditional Green-and-White Day.

Trying to pump everyone up for the Spring Hill Broncos, the PV Cheerleaders cooked up a little something for the king and queen candidates. The girls were required to share water balloons which were strategically placed on the heads of their male counterparts, and, even though the ladies were careful, accidents do happen. Then with a little revenge on their minds, the boys got to shoot shaving cream off the girls' noses using squirt bottles as their weapons.

The cheerleaders later performed a dance routine to Run DMC's "Tricky."

At about 9:30 the Courtwarming dance began to sounds of the musical group, Scotland Yard. The highlight of the night, and the week, was the crowning of Dennis Ross as Courtwarming King and Kim McCorkell as Courtwarming Queen for the 1987-1988 year. Their court included Kent Stahl, Daryl Davis, Jeff Hampton, Tammy Boone, Lisa Jackson and Dana Teagarden.

Athletics and Academics Work Together

A strong activities program can and should complement a school's academic program. Activities are an integral part of the total curriculum of Prairie View schools. A well-balanced activity program provides the opportunity for physical, social and emotional development complementary intellectual growth.

Participation in school activities encompasses all students without regard to sex, race, or creed and teaches that it is a privilege and an honor to represent one's school. Interscholastic activities constitute a part of the right kind of "growing up" experience for students. Participants learn to accept success and failures, gain poise and confidence, achieve tolerance and understanding of others and gain the self-satisfaction of accomplishing goals. Under a well-administered school program, students and spectators become better citizens through participations and observation of activities conducted under established rules.

We here at Prairie View are proud of our Activities program and especially proud of our fine student-athletes.

Special Olympics. Exactly what is it? Who does it involve? What do these people do?

Special Olympics is probably the least recognized and least understood of all the athletic programs at PV. However, person for person, pound for pound, they are the most productive, hardest working and most travelled of any of the other teams.

Like in other sports, Special Olympics has three seasons — fall, volleyball; winter, basketball; and spring, track. Many of the athletes compete in individual skills contests also. The teams

Special Olympics

PVSO Athletes Bring Home Honors

even sport their own award — winning cheerleading squad.

Even though they already have enough trophies, medals and ribbons to make any athletic team jealous, coaches Cheryl Kratzberg, Beth Smith and Dick Booe poured on the pressure again this year and watched as their athletes brought home still more awards. To say that PV was well represented by these young people would be a vast understatement.

These athletes travel to Pittsburg, Hayes, Wichita and Topeka to compete. They joined the national champion KU Jayhawks in Lawrence for a basketball clinic. They've even competed at the KU Relays. However, the highlight of the entire Special Olympics Athletic program occurred last summer as Coach Smith, along with volleyballers Tonya Dilley and Jeff Castleberry, a 1987 graduate, competed in the International Summer Olympics, held at Notre Dame University in Indiana. Smith's volleyball team took gold medal honors, defeating Great Britain and Ohio in the final rounds. One of the biggest smiles in all of Kansas, though, belonged to Tonya Dilley as she brought home a silver medal in individual skills competition.

In spite of all the awards and recognition, the ultimate goal of the Special Olympics is a very simple one — to be accepted as a part of the athletic program and gain the respect that is given to other athletes. After all, they are athletes competing against other athletes. It's that simple.

Yo Baby! Yo Baby! Yo Baby! Yo!

Keep the crowd going so they can help inspire the team to victory. Sounds like a simple task. But as the old saying goes, it's easier said than done. Getting the crowd involved is often a very difficult task. A great deal of work, dedication and nervousness all work together to bring about that all important word — spirit.

The work began during the summer as cheerleading sponsor Beth Smith took several girls to summer camp. Long days were filled with routine after routine as counselors labored with the cheerleaders to perfect certain skills.

The dedication, and work, continued throughout the year as many school mornings found the girls in the gym at 7:30 going through their repertoire of cheers. All of this paid off, especially for the athletic teams who reaped the rewards of the enthusiasm inspired by the PV cheerleaders.

This past season the Prairie View football squad finished fourth in the always tough Frontier league with a 4-4 won-lost record. Standout senior players were: David Kline, Chad Allen and Mark Hogan. They along with the remainder of the squad members helped PV to a 5-4 overall record.

In the final League statistics, PV finished second in total team defense and fifth in total team offense.

During the 1987 season the most memorable event had to be the 28-0 shutout victory over Osawatomie. The first since the year 1973.

Volleyball

Prairie View High School girls volleyball team played with enthusiasm and determination in 1987. The girls played by the motto, "It's never over 'till it's over." Countless times when behind Prairie View fought back. This is courage that cannot be measured and is hard to define.

Several milestones were accomplished this season. The freshman team finished the season with only two losses, and were runners-up in the Wellsville freshman tournament. The J. V. team finished 4th in the league and 3rd place in the Louisburg J. V. Tournament.

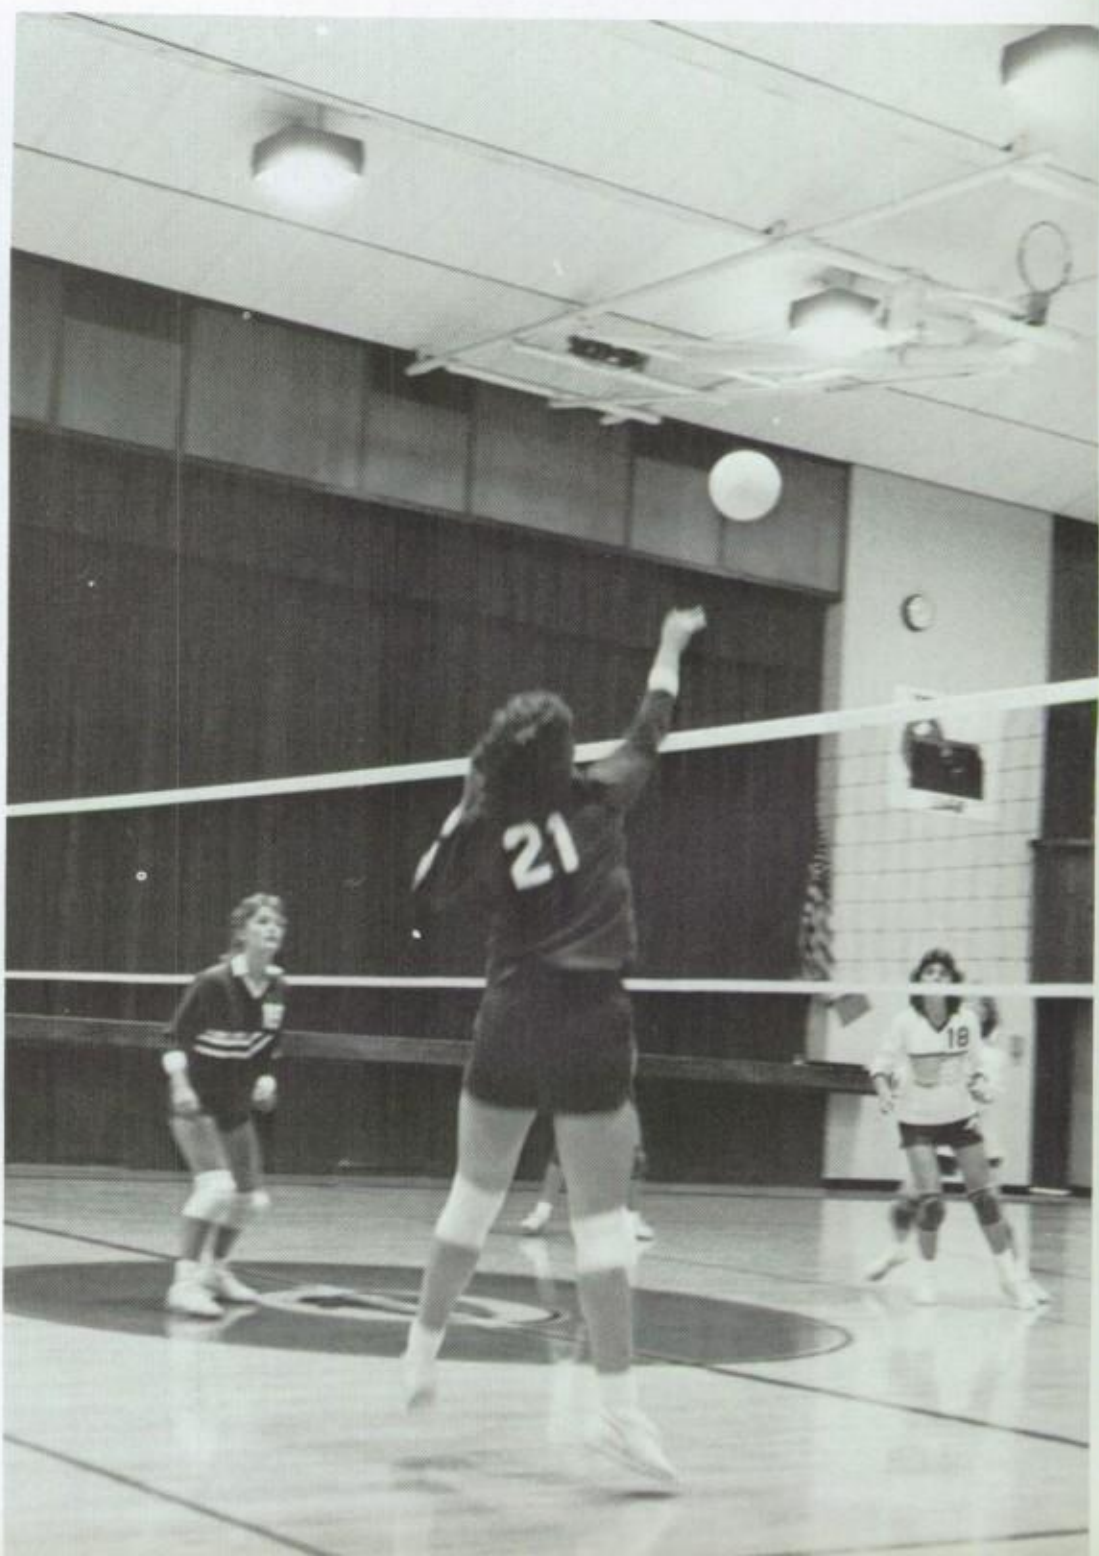

In Varsity play, the team finished 4th place in the Louisburg tournament. A first time victory was scored over Madison High School, class 2A state runner-up in 86. Most notable however, was the intensity and quality with which the girls played. In one of the toughest leagues in the state, Prairie View showed first class teamwork and hustle all season. Lori Canada and Lisa Baker were honorable mention All-League, we are all proud. In closing, good luck to graduating seniors and the best to all the returning players.

After graduating only two squad runners from the 1986 Regional Runner-Up the 1987 girls' cross country team, led by returning state qualifiers Jennifer Johnson and Dana Teagarden, had high hopes.

Unfortunately, Coach Daryl Ramsey was unable to field a full team for the first time in eight years. Ramsey's two sophomore newcomers Tammy Weers and Missy Fuller, one body short of a team, set their sights on individual honors and spurred each other on. Sophomore Johnson again qualified for state and placed 29 out of 94 runners at Manhattan. Teagarden, hampered by injury, ended her cross country career at PV at the 4-A Regional meet in Ottawa.

On the flipside, Ramsey's boys were a much improved squad. Top returning runners Chris Bishop and Robert Tolley, both juniors, were joined on the varsity squad by Kelly Northern, Jackie Nash, Matt Teagarden, Richard Kinser, Dennis Ross, Joe Ray and Mike Nickell.

Kinser, a freshman, was especially impressive, starting the season with a top ten finish in his first event varsity cross country meet. He was on track for a state birth until suffering a knee injury.

Pushed all year by Kinser and Tolly, Bishop earned a trip to State, the first since Mark Karhoff went in 1983. In Manhattan, Chris suffered extreme pre-race jitters and placed 72 out of 98.

Overall, the boys' squad looks very strong for next year. In addition to his crew of Bishop, Tolly and Kinser, Coach Ramsey should be able to find the all important fourth, fifth and sixth men from returning J.V. runners and new recruits.

Though the PV boys' basketball team did not set the world on fire, this past season was one of marked improvement. After a victoryless period of two and a half years, the Buffalos won a 47-46 heart stopper over Jayhawk-Linn in the Frontenac Invitational Tournament on Jan. 22. PV captured its second and last victory of the season with a 53-46 trouncing of Jayhawk-Linn at home on Jan. 28.

Coach Ron Price's Buffalos were led by a trio of seniors — Jeff Hampton, Brad Mendenhall and David Kline. Mendenhall was the only player to receive individual honors. Brad was named to the Frontenac all tournament team, received honorable mention all league, was second on the team in scoring with 216 total points, 11 per game, and in rebounding with 126.

Hampton led the team in total points — 250, 12 per game and in rebounds — 129. Point guard Kline led the team in assists with 134 and was third in scoring.

Other seniors on the varsity squad were Dennis Ross and Kent Stahl. Ross was used in a part-time state and usually the sixth man. Stahl's services were lost to the Buffalos after a knee injury early in the season.

Returning for Coach Price are several players who saw varsity action. Leading the way are juniors Chris Bishop, fourth in scoring and third in rebounding and Dale Leisure, second in assists. They will be joined by juniors Jason Kinder and Roy Shideler, sophomore Eric Canada and freshman Richard Kinser.

Senior David Kline goes airborne for an assist to Junior Eric Canada.

Girls' Basketball

A year of change. What else could be said to describe the 1987-1988 girls' basketball season?

After some frustrating seasons, the Lady Buffalos got their act together. Even though the season was not what some would consider a winning one in terms of wins and losses, the girls had several high points to remember.

Although the varsity girls finished 9-12 with a disappointing loss to Spring Hill at sub-state, overall the girls' program compiled a very respectable 30-14 record. The freshman girls ended with a perfect 6-0 record and junior varsity added 15 victories against only 2 losses.

In tournament play, the varsity won the Frontenac Tournament while placing Dana Teagarden and Tammy Boone on the all-Tournament team. The J.V. squad won the Prairie-View Jayhawk-Linn Invitational. Teagarden also made the all-Tournament squad at the Trojan Tip-Off.

The girls also captured some state honors as Teagarden finished 11th in 4-A rebounding. Boone grabbed first place in 4-A rebounding, as well as first in rebounding average, all classes. She then was chosen all-state honorable mention by the Kansas Sports Magazine.

GIRLS BASKETBALL: First Row — Cheri Watson, Gail Wright, Missy Hurt, Shanda Roy, Michelle Bell, Amy Boydston and Amy Teagarden. Summing up the season, the Prairie View Buffalo wrestling team ended its dual meets with a 12-2 record, giving them the title of Co-Champion in the league.

Prior to the 4-A regional tournament, the individual records were as follows:

Chad Roy (98) 11 wins, 6 losses
Darren Koberlein (105) 16 wins, 7 losses
Steve Kaiser (112) 2 wins, 14 losses
Brian Tennis (119) 16 wins, 9 losses
Jackie Nash (126) 14 wins, 12 losses, 1 tie
Eric Fleming (132) 13 wins, 10 losses
Chad Allen (138) 18 wins, 6 losses
Mark Hogan (145) 11 wins, 6 losses
Todd Golladay (155) 15 wins, 5 losses, 1 tie

Mike Bishop (167) 6 wins, 13 losses
Wes Chambers (185) 10 wins, 11 losses
Mike Crawford (HWT) no wins, 16 losses
Totals: 142 wins, 116 losses, 2 ties

The Buffalos finished third at the Burlington Invitational and also took fourth place at the Prairie View Invitational.

The boys put in a great deal of hard work throughout the season and had a great success.

Brian Tennis struggles to keep control of his opponent.

Mark Hogan goes for the take down.

Boys' Track

Senior High Boys' Track: Front row — Mike Green, Robert Tolly, Wes Servos, Brad Heide, David Kline, Kevin Bruce, Wes Chambers, Michael Bishop and Richard Kinser. Second row — Dean Stwalley, Jimmy Farris, Danny Weitman, Chad Allen, Todd Golladay, Carsten Schmidt, Eric Canada and David Brown. Back row — Hank Abel, Brian Tennis, Chris Bishop, Dale Sylva, David Nash, Darren Koberlein, Jackie Nash, Joe Ray and Eric Bishop.

COUNTERCLOCKWISE FROM RIGHT: Eric Canada and Dean Ray watch for the finish at 4A Regionals Jim Farris lets the discus fly. Todd Golladay's vault is unsuccessful.

This year's team was composed of many underclassmen. Two seniors Chad Allen and David Kline led the young team this year. The increased number of tracksters gave the team depth. They were able to cover every event and score in each of them. Much of the young people on the team faired very well. With losing only two lettermen, Coach Burke should have a very strong team next year. Being able to cover all events was very important. They didn't have to rely on one area for the points.

Central Heights was the best over all meet this year. The boys scored well in all areas, which combined for a high team total. They worked hard to bring up the fourth and fifth places to third places and more points.

4A Regionals at PV was another very good meet for individual team members. The top three in each event would get to go to the state meet in Wichita. PV qualified in one event and was very close to qualifying more.

Todd Golladay, pole vaulter, came very close to state. Twice in a row he brushed the bar on his way down as he was attempting to clear 12'. Todd's vault of 11'6" was his best ever. He took fourth place in the pole vault.

Chad Allen just missed qualifying in the 800-meter run. Allen was placed in the slow heat, making his race against time. Chad placed fifth in the event.

Chris Bishop also placed in the top six at Regionals. Chris placed fourth in the 3200-meter run. He was six seconds behind the third place finisher.

The qualifying event was the 3200-meter relay made up of Chad Allen, Chris Bishop, Robert Tolley and Eric Canada. The relay finished second with a time of 8:23.01. This also set a 24 second faster school record. At the state meet, the relay couldn't get a faster time. They placed ninth at state competition.

Girls' Track

COUNTERCLOCKWISE FROM ABOVE: Kim McCorkell breaks the string. The 800m relay of (l to r) Teagarden, Canada, S. Wright, and McCorkell set a new school record. Ida Kennedy, affter a year long battle with Jodie Long, owns the school javelin record. Kathy Kirkpatrick heaves a personal best at Regionals. Lori Canada hands off to Dana Teagarden.

TREASURE THE PAST . . .

JOURNEY FORWARD

By Jill Lowe

As the Prairie View graduating class of 1988 tromped off to kindergarten 13 years ago, graduation was a concept they were not yet familiar with. Back in 1975 our main concerns were who our teacher would be, who had the best crayons, and whether or not recess was long enough.

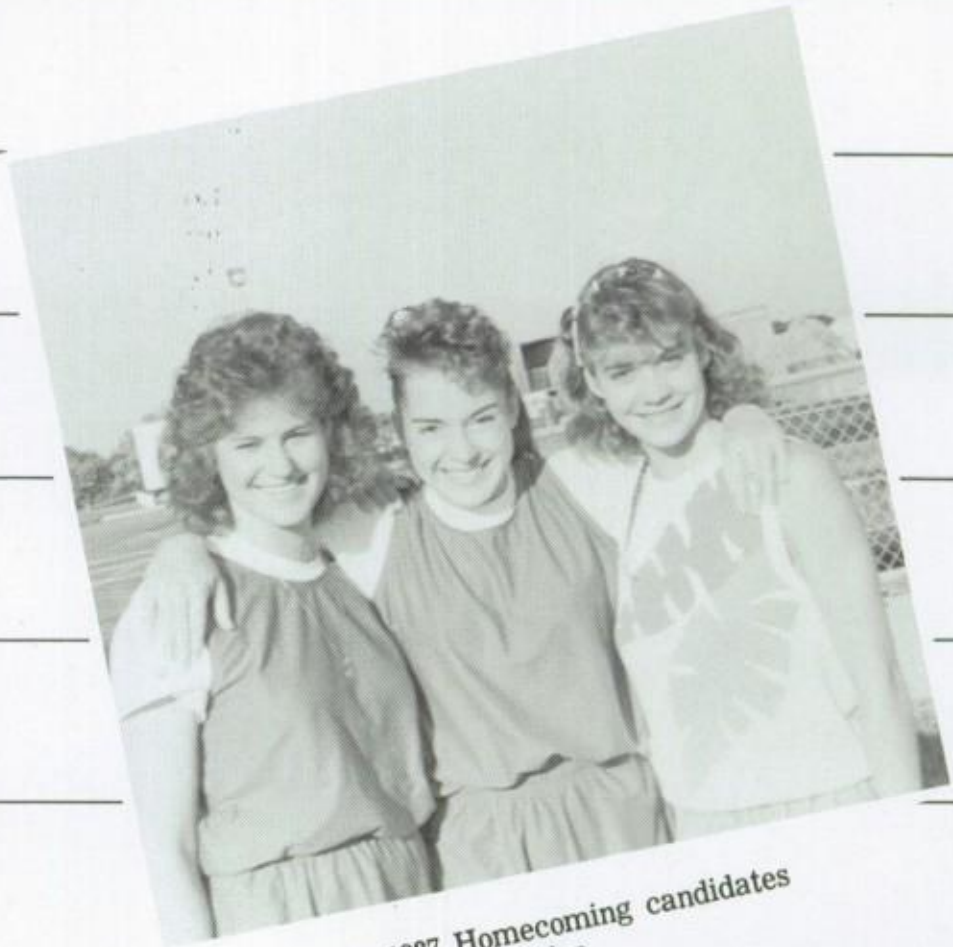

Progressing through grade school we learned many basic skills needed in every day life, such as reading, writing and arithmetic. Each new school year built on these skills and added more to our knowledge. As we neared the completion of grade school, we had not only acquired many scholastic skills, but many social skills as well. We had learned how to make friends, and were becoming keenly aware of the opposite sex.

Entering Jr. High was an exciting and scary experience. Mastering locker combinations, and remembering our class schedule and where to go was often very taxing. After settling into the routine at P.V., however, we could relax and enjoy Jr. High life. We were becoming more aware of graduation, but still couldn't quite grasp this seemingly far-off concept. "Popularity" and "going together" were our major concerns at this point in our lives.

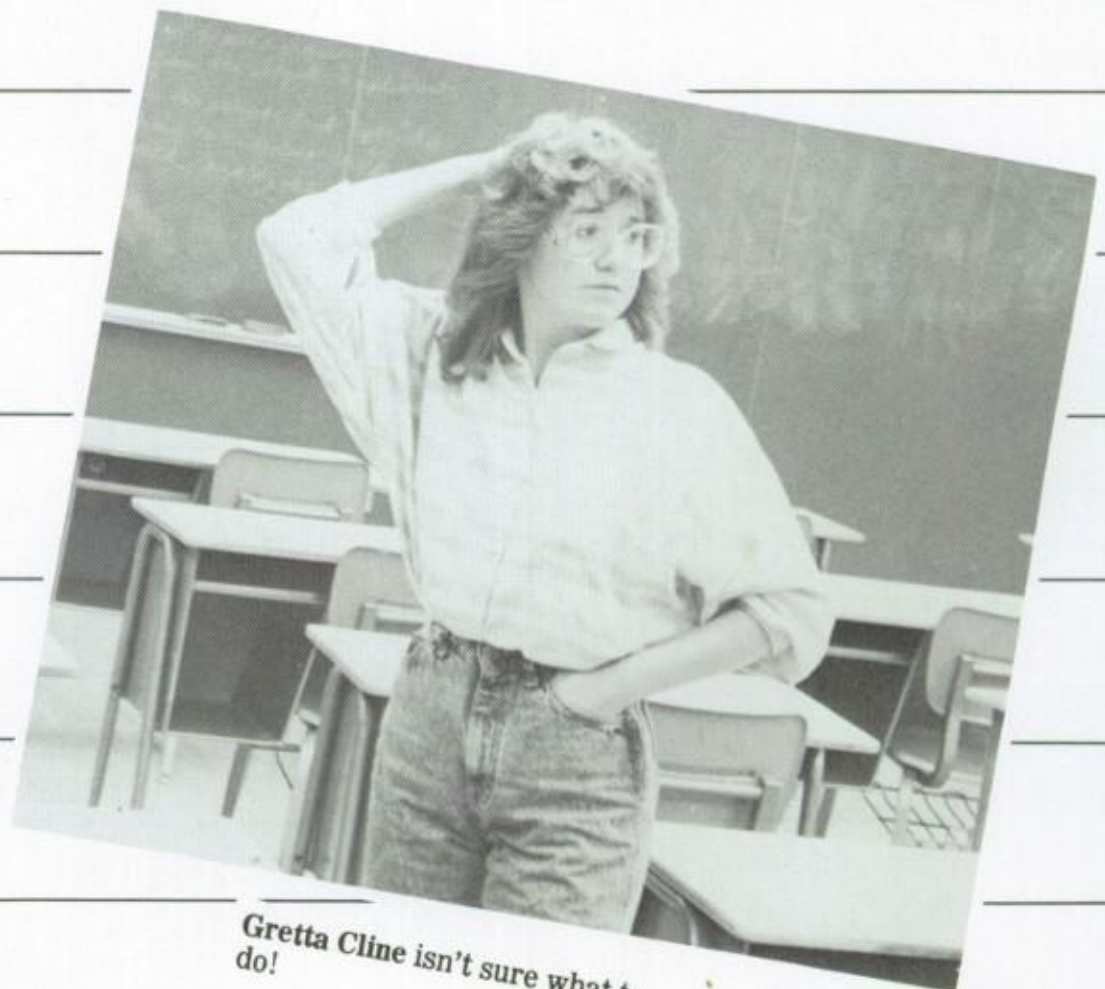

As freshmen we often made the comment, "Four more years — it seems like forever!" During those four years we encountered many experiences: The task of mastering our homework and classes, the pride of making the honor roll, the thrill of victory and agony of defeat experienced in sports, the excitement of dating, the sweet feeling of falling in love, the many tears shed when a relationship didn't work out, and all the many great and unforgettable times shared with friends — friends that will last a lifetime.

As we finally reached our senior year, feelings of anticipation and anxiety reeled into our brains. The thought of graduation was now very real — exciting, scary and sad too. After graduation, we would have to depart from the many dear friends we had made during high school, and would be out on our own, trying to succeed in college and in life. Prevailing over these feelings, though, were the feelings of satisfaction and pride in having successfully completed 13 years of schooling.

From these 13 years, we have acquired the vast amounts of knowledge, scholastic and social skills that will enable us to succeed in life. Along with these skills, we each carry with us many fond memories of special times shared with special friends that will last a lifetime. The high school years are truly some of the best years of one's life. Thanks for the great experience Class of '88.

School Day Memories

Patty Dowty

As we reach out our hand
To the diploma we finally grasp While we think on the memories of the years in the past Tears fill our eyes
because it's all gone
We're starting a new life
We have to move on
We hope friends will keep in touch
As the years pass us by
Although it hurts inside
We'll try not to cry
We think of kindergarten and our first day
Now as we've reached our last
We are going our separate ways
How can we say good-bye to friends who mean so much Will there be enough time to sincerely keep in touch We'll always have the memories of our school years from day one Let's not think of school as ending but that a new life has begun

“Blue Hawaii” Homecoming 1987

Coronation ceremonies to crown the 1987 Prairie View Homecoming King and Queen were the feature attractions before the Homecoming football game on Sept. 25. The newly crowned King and Queen were Mr. Chad Allen and Miss Wendy Schaffer. Wendy, a senior, is the daughter of the late Mr. Larry Schaffer and Mrs. Alberta Schaffer from Parker. Chad, from La Cygne and also a senior, is the son of Mr. Bill Allen and Mrs. Linda Hall.

Making up the 1987 Homecoming Royalty court were Kim McCorkell, Dennis Ross, Tammy Boone, Daryl Davis, Stephanie Duke and Matt Teagarden. In order to have been nominated for candidacy these students must have participated in either football, volleyball, cross-country, cheerleading, drill team, or band during the fall sports season. It was quite an honor to have been chosen for candidacy out of the many students participating in these activities.

Many activities took place Homecoming week to show our school spirit and prepare for the big event. To show their spirit students dressed up to coordinate with different days of the week. Monday was Raisin Day; Tuesday, Beach Ball Day; Wednesday dazzled the halls as Dress-Up Day; Thursday, the traditional Green and White Day; and Friday, Surfer Day, ended the week on a high wave of spirit.

A bonfire pep rally was held Wednesday night to build morale for the game. The game itself was a huge success as the PV Buffalos downed the Spring Hill Broncos 22-21 before a rowdy home crowd. Topping off the exciting week and outstanding victory was the “Blue Hawaii” homecoming dance that followed the game.

One of the many decisions seniors must make is choosing Senior Superlatives. The Journalism department selects the categories. The entire senior class is eligible to be elected and every senior may cast a vote.

Besides the seniors who gain Superlative honors, each and every senior is special, possessing their own unique qualities and talents that make them stand out. Seniors in the Class of 1988 gained honors in a wide variety of areas. David Kline was chosen as fullback and linebacker for the Frontier League All Conference. Chad Allen and Mark Hogan gained Honorable Mention Frontier League as cornerbacks. Wendy Schaffer and Chad Allen captured the Homecoming and FFA/FHA King and Queen crowns. Kim McCorkell and Dennis Ross were crowned the '88 Courtwarming King and Queen. Chad Allen and David Kline portrayed lead characters, "Hawkeye" and "Duke", in PV's production of M.A.S.H. Brad Mendenhall, Tammy Boone and Dana Teagarden made the Frontenac All-Tournament Basketball Team. Jill Lowe won the title of the 1986 & 1987 Kansas High School Rodeo Association Barrel Racing Champion, and captured the 1987 KHSRA Queen's crown. Dana Teagarden gained many scholastic honors, being named a State-finalist for the Century III Leadership Scholarship and a Semi-finalist for the National Merit Scholarship Contest. Dana was also accepted into the U.S. Air Force Academy. Gregg Polley and Larry Reynolds gained the honor of being named National Merit Commended Students.

Though at the time this article was written basketball season was not yet over and track had not yet begun, many PV seniors possessed the potential to gain outstanding honors in basketball, track and scholastically. Congratulations to the seniors who gained these honors, and to every senior whose unique qualities and talents made our high school career at PV an enjoyable success.

Senior Trip

We went, we saw, we conquered

By Patty Dowty

On May 6 at 4:15 in the early morning, 50 seniors set out on what was to be a very wet and cold four-hour drive to Branson, Mo. When they arrived at JR's Motor Inn they were ready for sleep. But according to Ms. George's schedule this trip was not for sleep.

The busy schedule began with a day at Silver Dollar City then back to the motel for a little free time. Then it was back on the bus to the Shepherd of the Hills show and on to Pizza Hut for dinner.

The next morning they rose at 7:45 to have breakfast across the street at Bonanza. They had free time to shop and dump a few sponsors into the pool until 6:30. This time they travelled to Sadies Sideboard to catch dinner before the Baldknobbers show. Later, they went to the Track IV for go-cart and bumper boat rides. Sunday was the end of the trip. They had free time until 1:00, when they loaded up on the bus for a long trip home interrupted with a brief stop at the Pro Bass Shop in Springfield. They finally arrived home at about 8:00, tired, but full of memories.

Brad Mendenhall shows his true age.

Mr. Elder splashes into the pool.

Jared Warrick puts the pedal to the metal.

"Gosh we're hungry," say Mary Carlton and Mike McMillan.

"Whee, this is fun!" Dennis Ross, Patty Dowty and Angie Wright enjoy senior trip.

For many years we have looked upon graduation as the "ultimate day" in our high school career. It seems that only yesterday we were laughing and playing games of tag on the playground, without the faintest idea of the definition of graduation. Graduation is defined as "the award or acceptance of an academic degree or diploma."

On May 22 at 2:00 p.m., the Prairie View class of 1988 walked across the stage to receive their diplomas. Along with the excitement of finally completing thirteen years of schooling, feelings of fear and insecurity also surrounded the graduates. As they grasped the diplomas in hand and proudly shifted their tassels to the right, they graduated from high school and into an entirely new life.

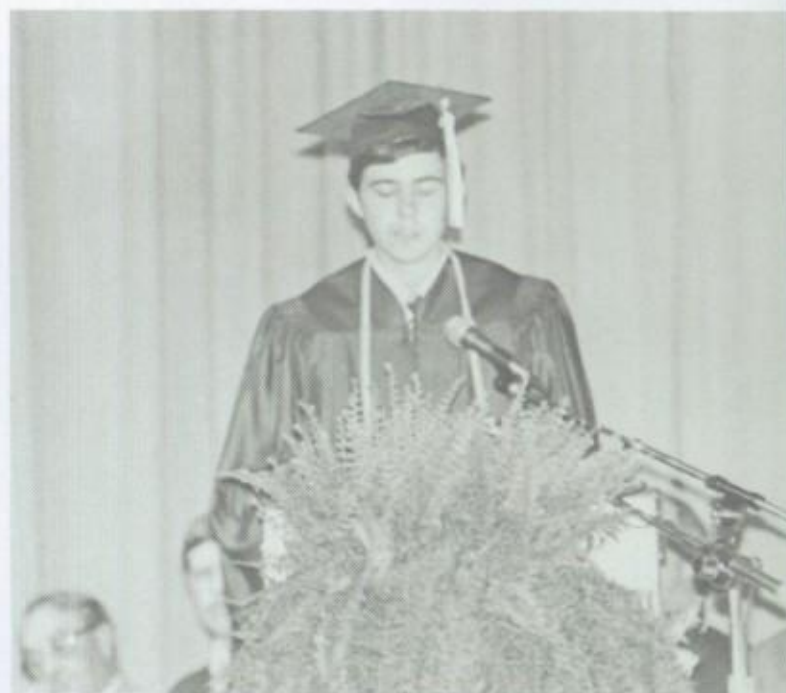

This new life is full of challenges and new experiences. As adults, we will be called on to make our own decisions and solve our own problems. The road we choose to travel will seem lonely at times as we part from old friends and familiar faces to pursue our individual goals. The road will be rough for many as we face the challenges of making it through college, earning money, finding that great job we would each like to have, and building a stable, happy life for ourselves.

As we go forth into this new life, we go forth with confidence that we have gained the education, knowledge, and social experiences that will help us achieve whatever goals we choose to pursue. We will also go forth with warm feelings and fond memories of the family, friends and teachers we have come to know so well over the past years. It is these people whom we can turn to for a helping hand, helpful advice, or the support we need when we face a difficult time out there on our own. So as we move away from home and enter into college, a career, or even marriage, we can feel assured that the familiar faces of home will be here if we need them, backing our efforts to succeed.

Thanks for all the great times and memories! We will treasure them always!

Prairie View School literally rang out the old and brought in the new with the 1987-88 school year. Throughout 1987, construction crews replaced and improved district facilities. In Parker and La Cygne, elementary students said 'good-bye' to their old schools and moved into completely new buildings. In Fontana, the band and library finally have real homes. The new annex to the old school has a band room, two new bathrooms and a library that doubles as a science room.

The most work was done at the PV site. A new building south of the high school houses a wrestling room, a bigger weight lifting room, increased food storage space and the district offices. During summer, the track was resurfaced and opened for public use. In addition a new long jump runway was constructed south of the stadium.

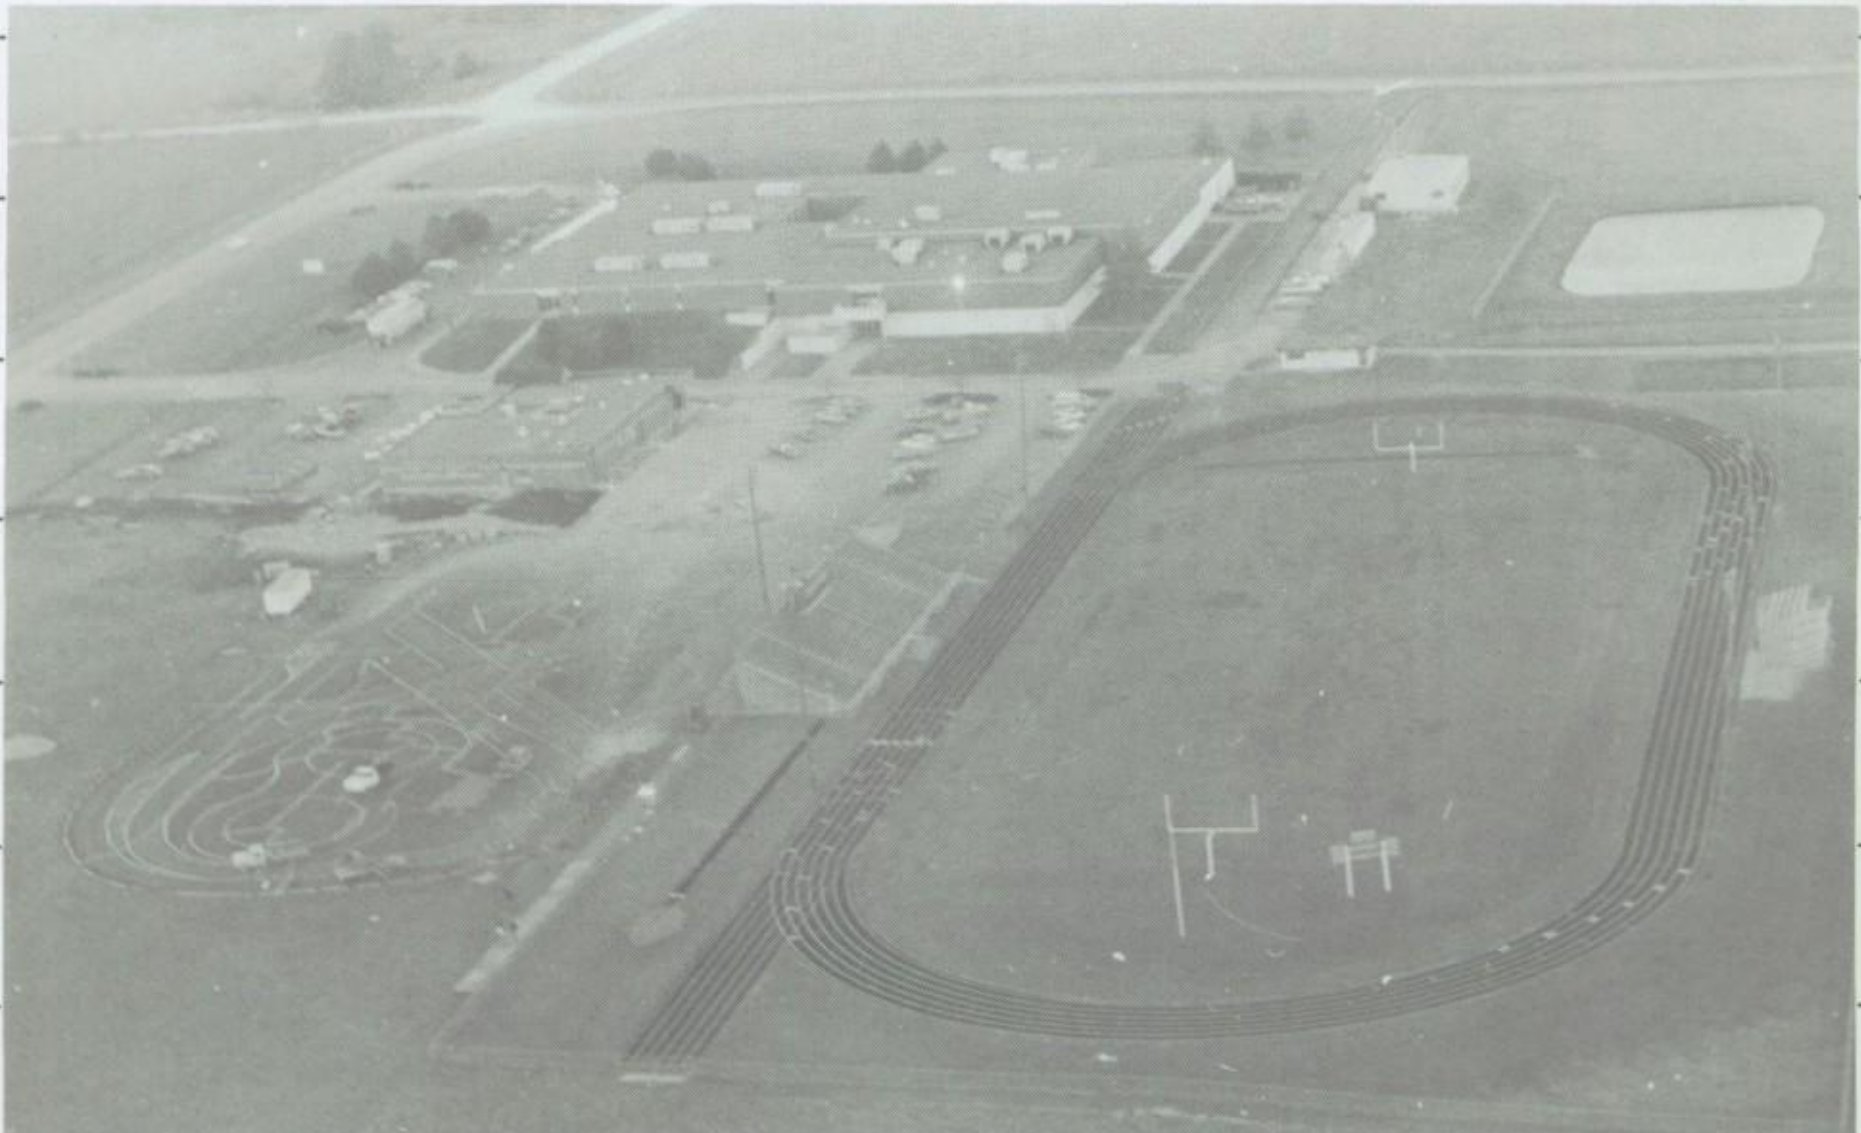

Buildings were not the only new additions to PV. Keith Smith was named the new English/Journalism teacher and head girls' basketball coach, and Clark Plihal joined the science department.

In order to hold staff meetings, school started an hour later the first Wednesday of every month, for students anyway.

Realizing the growing threat of drugs in our society, the school board created a Drug Awareness Team. They christened themselves the Raisin' Bunch. 'Hanging together,' they sponsored district-wide awareness events for students and adults.

The Raisin' Bunch: Alex Golladay, Joyce Stainbrook, Becky Morgan, Marilyn Hammet and Ron Schomaker.

The Time of Your Life

Jennifer Kriley

As the year rolls around, students look to the future and dream of the past. Underclassmen look ahead to the joys and trials of being a senior. Although many people look at their underclassmen years as unimportant, they are the building blocks to the maturity and responsibility needed to fulfill lifelong dreams and goals.

As freshmen, students experience many thrills arising from the newness of Junior High to High School. They face more difficult classes and the tribulations of "freshman initiation." They are confronted with the active social trials of dating. The parents of freshmen face the hardest problem of all, driver's training.

The sophomore year is the go-between year. They are beyond the thrill of being a freshman and entering high school but are not yet to the exciting junior year. The sophomore is faced with the dilemma of turning 16 — that ever-so-longed-for driver's license. The excitement of high school won't reach this distinguished bunch until the next year.

As juniors, the excitement soars. They are in the prime of their high school life. They experience the thrill and hard work of Prom, decorating and enjoying the night. The junior year is above all the most exciting year (until you are a senior!) But one can't forget about the freshman and sophomore years that led up to the best time one could imagine. The years are what you make them, so make them the best.

Junior High Prepares for the Future

Dennis Ross

This has been an action packed year for the students in Junior High. If the junior high students were not busy stretching out their winning streak in sports, they were involved in many other activities.

The cast of the musical, Funky Winkerbeans Homecoming set many wonderful experiences before their long awaited night of recognition. Mr. Daryl Ramsey and Mrs. Vivian Stroup taught Project STAR to the students during the second nine weeks. Project STAR is Student Awareness and Resistance. Throughout the year, both the eighth and ninth grade classes sponsored a dance for the entire junior high.

The officers for the eighth grade class were as follows: President, Johnie Mitchell; vice-president, Lisa Nilges; secretary, Amy Millard; and treasurer, Sarah Ray. The seventh grade class officers were: President, Teresa Roche; vice president, Marcie Teagarden; secretary, Julie Price; and treasurer, Melissa Stoughton.

Although Junior High is just a stepping stone on to further education, it still holds many treasurable moments and experiences. The memories made during Junior High adventures will last throughout their high school years — and beyond.

Junior High football ended its season with an impressive 5-2 record. The hard work and effort paid off for the team. Mid-season proved to be the only downfall for the Buffalos. Head Coach James Burke enjoyed a great season and was very proud of the efforts and accomplishments made this season.

Scoring for the Buffalos were Spence Upham and Johnnie Mitchell. Spence did an outstanding job for the Buffalos this year contributing a great deal of touchdowns. With a team effort, the team had a very successful season.

Mr. Burke and Mr. Price watch the game while Shane Chambers paces the side line.

Lisa Nilges, Stephanie Seymour, Stacey Payne, and Candace Thorten get set for the ball.

The 1987 Junior High volleyball teams concluded their seasons with winning records. The eighth grade ended their volleyball season with a 6-3 record. They also brought home impressive second place medals from the Paola Invitational, falling only to Louisburg. Seventh grade volleyball players ended with an outstanding 6-1 record. Their only loss came against Gardner in the opening match of the season.

Head coach Vic Roche and assistant coach Beth Smith lead the girls in a fun and victorious year. Overall the girls enjoyed a great season.

Boys' Basketball

With both the seventh and eighth grade teams finishing with 1-8 records, many would think that there would be no highlights. However, Coach Vic Roche said he did have several memorable moments. The biggest was probably the eighth graders overtime victory over Gardner.

The seventh grade will return 14 players to next year's squad which will give a good foundation to build around.

Though few statistics are kept on the junior high level, it is imperative to remember that, though winning is important, building good sportsmanship and a quality attitude helps to make tomorrow's leaders.

Coach Beth Smith.

Having only 7 girls out for basketball did not stop the eighth graders from posting a 4-5 record. In no game did the young girls get "blown out." They played well all year and brought respect to their program.

Twelve seventh graders worked together to compile a 6-3 season. Their three losses were not only close but also to strong teams. With these numbers and a healthy, winning spirit, next year's season looks bright.

Zen,
 I will wire it to seniors and it's great cause no more school. But I wish you and anyone else if you and Scott don't work out. I hope I get that job so we can work together again. It would be great.
 Let's enjoy this last year together.

Love

Jen,

Well, we're finally Seniors! I don't know about you, but I'm glad, even though I'll be sad when graduation gets here. I hope we have a really great year &
I wish you all the luck in the world.
Just remember, Keep a smile on your face & Keep your chin up!

"89"

Friends Forever, Heather

Hey fellow SENIOR!.,

Man, this is our SENIOR year so we better live it up. We've been through quite a bit together. Especially FHA camp when we almost got to stay in "Holiday Inn", (just kidding) instead of those dorms. Well, let's make it a good year (last year) ~~was~~ "OK" pres? I've never meant this as much as I do now, I wish you Good Luck in Yyys, grades, future (whatever - you know what I'm trying to say!)

Jennifer,
I'm glad that we are friends, even though we only have two classes together. I wish you luck when you're a Senior.
Your friend Eric

Jennifer

You're all one sweet girl. I'm pleased that we are friends. You really brightened up my days with your hello's. I'm really going to miss you next year.
So take care and behave.

Kent

Jennifer,
You're a real sweet girl and I hope we can still keep on being really good friends and I know we will always be really good friends. Watch out world, were the seniors now. Stay Sweet - sis!
I honestly do wish you the best of luck in the world w/ Scott. I know you love him so hang to him!
Love always,
Jennifer E.

Jennifer -
Hi! Well it's our last Junior day and then we become big bad Seniors! You're a super-sweet gal, stay that way! Good luck and take care!
Mindy

Jennifer,

I'm glad we became friends, I hope we can always remain friends. Just think after the summer we'll be BIG BAD SENIORS! sounds great.

Don't it? I wish you the best of luck in everything you do. Good luck with Scott, keep him in line. Well I guess I see ya next year. Be cool and stay out of trouble. Your friend

Jen,

Now that I'm outta
here, it's definitely gonna be different for you. I just want to tell you that you've come to mean alot to me in the past 2 years. Even though sometimes you drive me crazy, there'll never be anyone else that can take your place. Just remember all the fun times, the crazy times (the times when we knew we wouldn't get away with it!) and the bad times too. We're both grown up alot in those two years &
I couldn't think of anyone better to grow up with, (except maybe Shelly!) Just remember when I'm gone, that even though I'm not here every waking moment, I'm just a phone call, or a short drive through the countryside. Take care & have fun (lots of it!!) in your last year. Cause it goes real fast.

88 Rocks

Love you,

McDoe

few,

Well, it's been a hell of a year
huh? In a way I'm glad it's over, and then again I'd like to start over. But over all, I guess it hasn't been so bad. At least we're Seniors now. I'm glad we had Am history together so we could become better friends.
I'm also glad I'll never have to do another one of those stupid speeches. By the way, thanks to you and Steve, I know where the library is. Thanks for everything and good luck in all you do. Don't get in too much trouble - just enough that you still have fun.

Love,

often to know you these not couple of years. Hope you enjoy next year & make it the best. Good luck in all you do. Don't work too hard.

Love
you

Just,

good to know you lets make next year the best for everyone. I'm nice person and a great friend. I'm my best you next year. I'm trying about that yet, though. I just want to have Big Bud Zinner. Then the next world. I'm not worrying about that yet, though. I just think, well, I can move you. I just think,

well, I can move you. I just think,

A * U T O G R A P H S made it? Believe or not. One more week in plucking. Just think you only have one more year.
 believe me it fly by you. So whatever you do make your senior year the best, because it doesn't stay. You're a really great girl and you have a lot going for. I wish you the best of luck in everything you do. I hope you achieve all your goals. Have fun next year.

Jen

I'm hard to believe that I have made to the end of my senior year already. I have had a lot of fun time being around you these last two years. I will miss not being able to see you while I am gone this summer. But I will be thinking about you every chance that I get. Stay out of trouble while I am gone.
 Love ya
 Scott & Dubois.

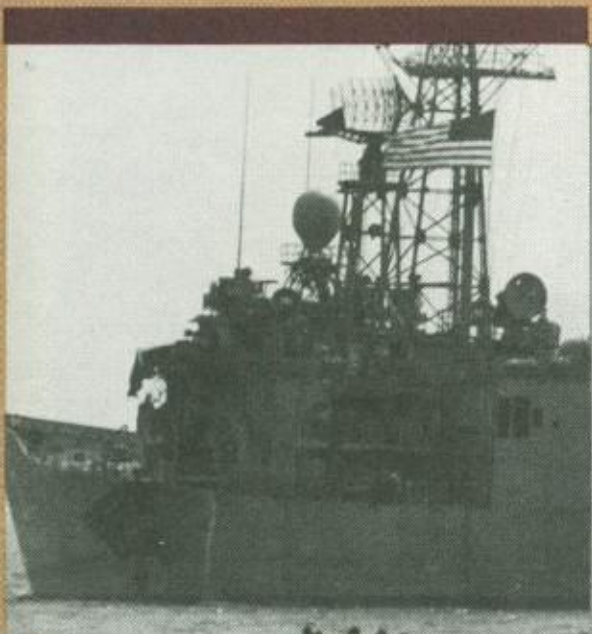

Jen

I think that you're really nice.
 I hope we can become better friends someday also! Have a great summer!

T EVENTS

1988

WAR ZONE — While patrolling international waters in May, the frigate Stark was hit by Iraqi missiles, killing 37 crewmen.

HEAT WAVE — Lt. Col. Oliver North seized the spotlight for six days in July during the Iran-Contra hearings. Despite the wave of "Olliemania," many Americans felt North broke the law.

BLACK MONDAY — The Dow Jones industrial average plunged 508 points to an all-time low following the biggest one-day selloff in history October 19.

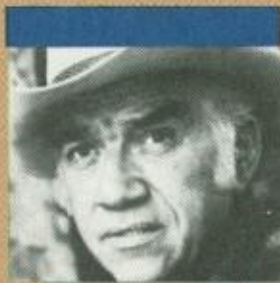

FAREWELL

POP ARTIST — Andy Warhol, 58, immortalized the Campbell's soup can and brought pop art to life in the 1960s. He once proclaimed everyone would have 15 minutes of fame.

"HOW SWEET IT IS" — Jackie Gleason, 71, created Brooklyn's rotund bus driver, Ralph Kramden, in television's "The Honeymooners."

TV FAVORITE — Lorne Greene, 72, played the father to three boys in the television series "Bonanza" for fourteen years. He later used his gentle, but rugged, appearance in TV commercials.
